Dear Friends:

We are truly living today in a world of astonishing achievements in science and technology. We are being reminded almost daily of the great power that resides in our scientific community and industrial resources. I consider it among the greater of my privileges as representative of the 15th Texas Congressional District to comply with a request made to me to comment upon some of these specific achievements in the field of space.

Our national program of space exploration has epitomized those unprecedented capabilities more dramatically than any other national effort of recent times. The National Aeronautics and Space Administration, to which the great State of Texas has made tremendous contributions of the talents, the energies, and knowledge of its people, reached its highest peak of achievement when Astronaut Neil Armstrong made the first imprint of a man's foot on the surface of the moon. Every American felt a deep sense of pride, experienced an unforgettable thrill as we watched that first momentous step taken.

Not only in manned space flight have we excelled. There are the weather satellites circling the globe, sending back real time pictures of what is happening in our atmosphere on an hourly basis. Hurricane Camille, for instance, was first detected and tracked by them. There are the communications satellites in synchronous orbit 23,300 miles out and in stationary position over the Atlantic, the Pacific, and the Indian Oceans. We can sit in our living rooms and see on TV events happening now on the other side of the world.

These are, indeed, exciting times we live in, especially for young people in school who have before them an era filled with great challenges and opportunities for achievement. As a result of the space program, educational curricula have been significantly improved throughout the nation. New scientific knowledge and institutional research capabilities have become available in ever increasing dimension. All these will be the means for the young generation by which they can help America and the world to become a better place for mankind to live securely and in peace.

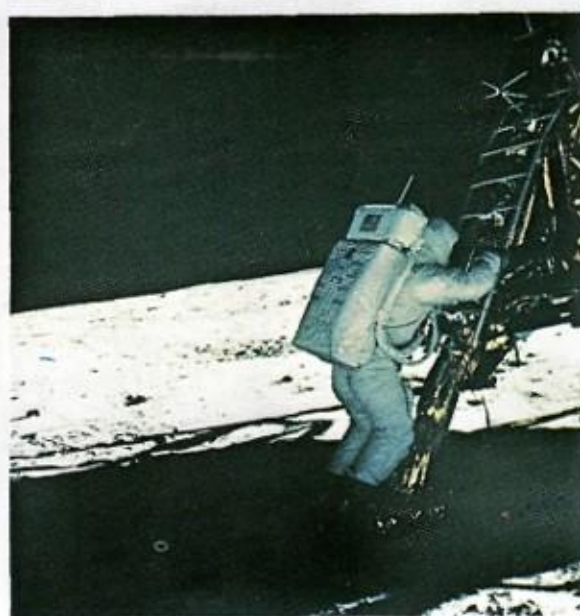

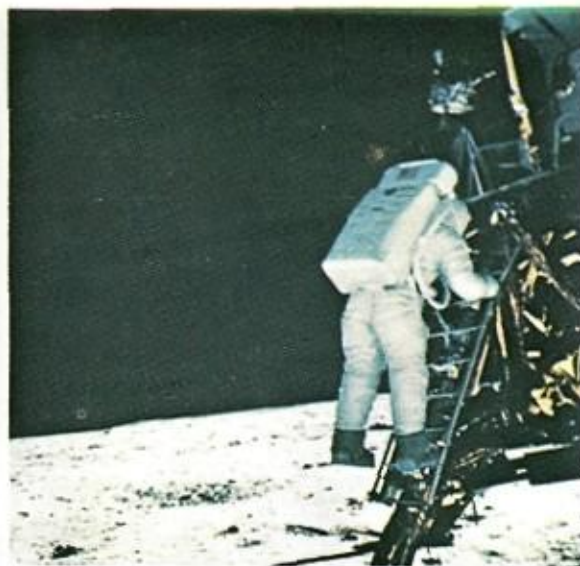

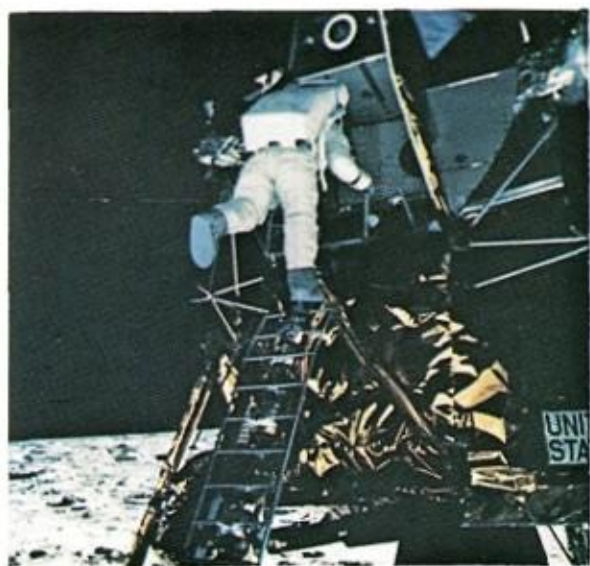

In exploring space, we have been true, in a world of often cynical practicality, to the ideals we as a people hold the most dear.

Future generations will demand no less from the people of the United States and of Texas. It may well be that some of you in the graduating class of 1970 will be among future contributors to this program. I know all of you will contribute in one way or another to America's future.

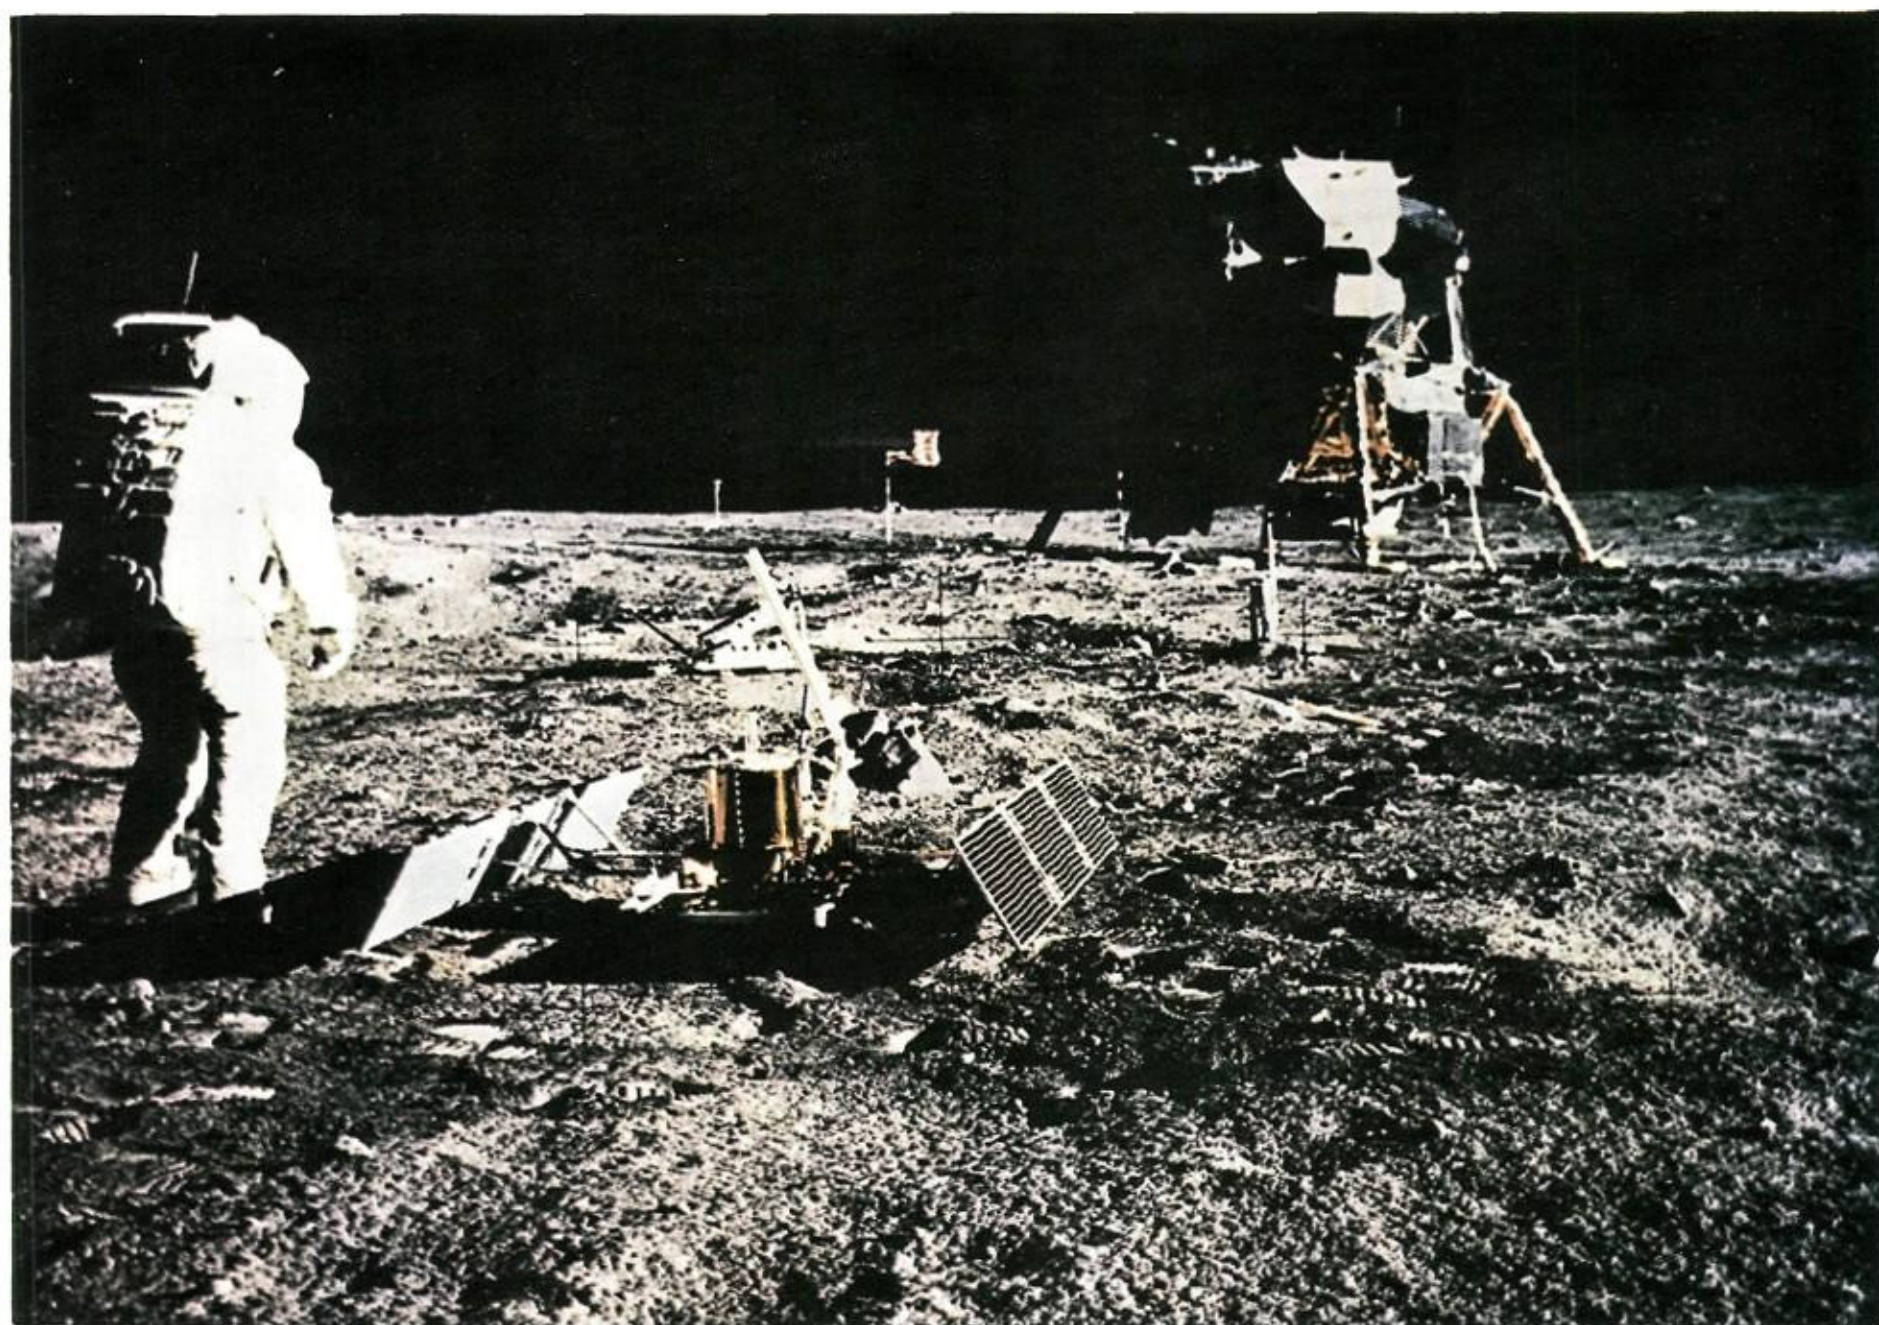

Sincerely,

Kika de la Garza
E. (Kika) de la Garza, M.C.

In a history-making feat, Apollo Astronaut Neil A. Armstrong stepped down from the Lunar Module spaceship onto the surface of the moon. He was the first man to ever set foot on the moon. As he descended Armstrong said: "That's one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind." The sequence of photos at left shows Armstrong as the entire world saw him on television. He was joined shortly after that by Astronaut Edwin (Buzz) Aldrin and the two conducted numerous experiments on the moon. The United States flag, its top edge braced by a spring wire to keep it extended on the windless moon and erect, is pressed into the lunar surface. In the lower photo on this page, the astronauts are picking up rock and dirt samples to be brought back to earth for study by scientists.

Mission Group tours NASA Facilities

Eight Mission High School students and their sponsor took a tour of the space facilities at the National Aeronautics and Space Administration outside of Houston this past year to obtain pictures and information for the 1969-70 yearbook.

They are shown in the upper photo looking at a scale model of the Saturn V rocket used by this country in its exploration of space. Left to right behind the rocket are Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Woods, sponsors, Kathy Miller, Felix Ramirez, Eloy Reyna, Velma Arce, Andy Garza, Dee Dee Blankenbaker, John Leidner and Mark Mills.

In the photo at right, the group is looking at the actual Apollo 9 space craft which orbited the moon and was recovered from the Pacific Ocean.

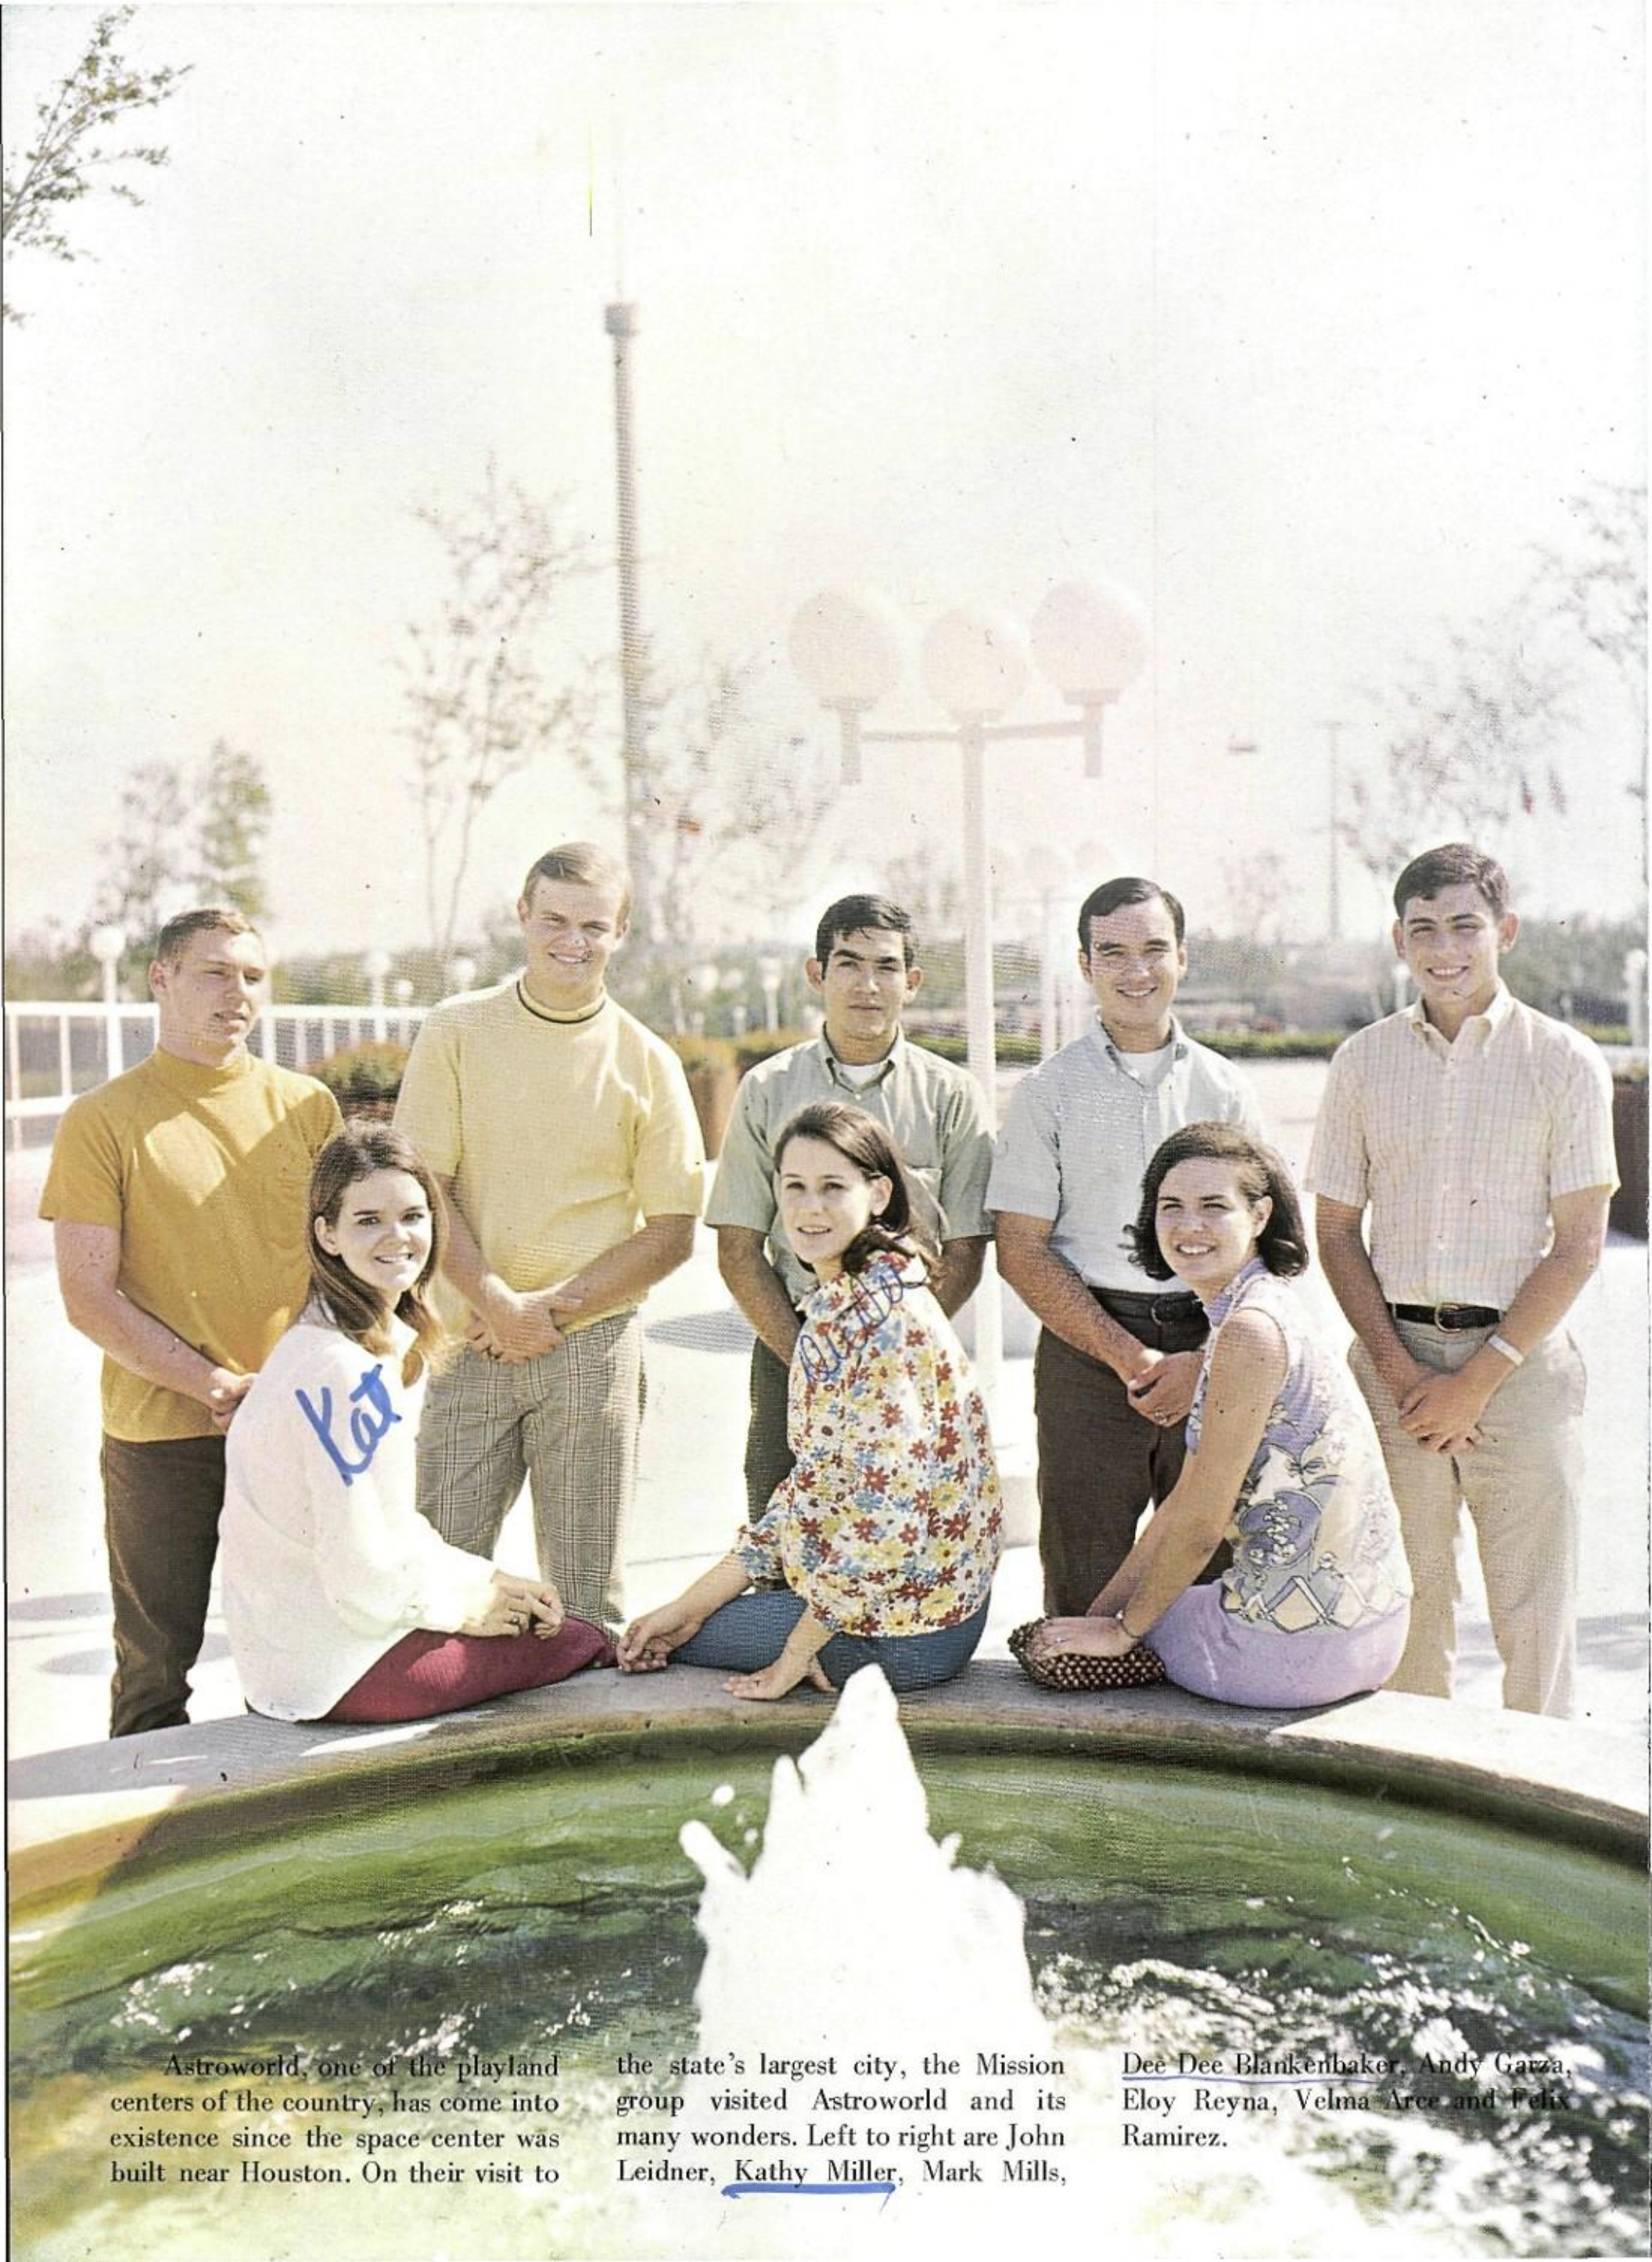

The Mission students who took the trip to Houston and toured the NASA center saw an actual size model of the Lunar Module space craft used by Astronauts Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin when they landed on the moon. The Mission group is shown in front of the model at the space center. Left to right are Felix Ramirez, Mark Mills, Kathy Miller, John Leidner, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Woods and sons, Todd and Mark, Velma Arce, Eloy Reyna, Dee Dee Blankenbaker and Andy Garza.

Astroworld, one of the playland centers of the country, has come into existence since the space center was built near Houston. On their visit to the state's largest city, the Mission group visited Astroworld and its many wonders. Left to right are John Leidner, Kathy Miller, Mark Mills,

Band Helps Dedicate Anzalduas Park

Formal dedication of Anzalduas Park in Mission brought a host of dignitaries to the Valley including U.S. Congressman Kika de la Garza, who is a graduate of MHS. Shown here cutting the ribbon to formally open the park are left to right County Commissioners Charles Curtis and Thurman Carter, Congressman de la Garza and Mr. N. L. McCullough, a member of the Grants & Aids Office of the Parks & Wildlife Department.

MHS Gets Close Scrutiny in Self-Evaluation

Two committees worked for weeks preparing reports as part of a self-evaluation of Mission High School by the Texas Education Agency and the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. This committee worked on philosophy and objectives. Shown left to right around the table are Mr. Jim Miller, Mrs. Felix Martinez, Mrs. Janice Willeford, Mrs. Margaret Valverde, Mr. Charles Abernathy, Miss Rose Hart Dale, and Freddy Galan. Other members of the committee were Dora Elia Garcia and Linton Stables, MHS students, and Mr. Forrest Hood and Mr. Harlan Woods, faculty members.

Mr. H. T. Nance, center, was chairman of the Steering Committee for the school evaluation, while Miss Rose Hart Dale was chairman of the Philosophy and Objectives Committee and Mr. B. I. Gaston was chairman of the School and Community Committee.

The Texas Education Agency and the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools requires that every school system conduct an evaluation at least every 10 years for accreditation with those agencies.

Mission High School was evaluated during the 1969-70 school term and faculty members, students, and administrators all had a part in the work of preparing the evaluation. The Philosophy and Objectives Committee and the School and Community Committee held numerous meetings to work up reports for Mr. H. T. Nance's Steering Committee.

Dr. William Barron of the University of Texas in Austin was chairman of the outside evaluation team that made several visits to MHS to see how it was progressing and to help committee members with their reports.

MHS maintained its excellent standing with two agencies as a result of the self-evaluation.

MHS Open House Draws 500 Parents

These students in a chemistry class show off an experiment for Mrs. Ray Hyde during open house to observe American Mission High School opened its doors for parents and visitors during American Education Week, Nov. 6-13, and more than 500 visited Tuesday, Nov. 11, at the open house. Various departments in the school put on exhibits, displays, skits or class projects to show the parents what takes place during an average day.

Spanish III students put on a skit, entirely in Spanish, while student scientists performed experiments, English classes held a book fair in the library, and math students conducted a math scramble and other math games.

The yearbook staff used the open house to good advantage with a work night to get pages ready for the printer and parents enjoyed watching them at work. Student typists and bookkeepers showed their talents while parents looked on.

To climax the activities, an assembly program was held in the gymnasium with parents listening as the Eagle Band and Choir performed several numbers.

A count by classes showed the juniors with the best representation of parents and this class won a free ticket to the first home basketball game Nov. 28 at Eagle Gymnasium.

Annual Staff members worked on page layouts and identification of pictures during the open house. Interested spectators are Mrs. John Stastney and Mrs. J. D. 18

"That Drug Thing" at the University of Texas in Austin.

America, The Good, Bad & Ugly

The National Honor Society of Mission High School presented a patriotic program prior to dismissing for the Thanksgiving holidays. During the NHS assembly, a group of students sang and added to the patriotic theme. Shown left to right here during the program are Melissa Smith, Sue Ellen Wicks, Peggy White, Pat McPherson, Laura Runnells, Nancy White, and Dale Compton.

Nancy Gibson, NHS member, was one of the speakers on the program for the Thanksgiving patriotic program.

Shown here listening to the speakers take their turn on the platform are left to right Ricky Hidalgo, Arthur Weber, Twinkle Rackley, NHS president, and Mrs. Vernice Wodrich, sponsor.

Several members of the Mission choir added to the NHS patriotic program by singing several numbers. Left to right as they sing "America," are Dee Dee Blankenbaker, Linda Grant, Jeff Stables, Chris Mann, and Cathy Grant.

A most impressive show was presented by 36 students as they marched through the gymnasium carrying the American flag as

hauser, and Richard Abbott.

Band Adds Musical Spirit to MHS

The Mission Eagle Band provided entertainment at all the football games this year and also played at pep rallies, concerts, parades, and bonfires. Shown here are several members of the band as they march on to the field during the halftime performance of the Mission-Edinburg football game.

Diana Corpus was presented as sweetheart of the Eagle Band for 1969-70. Irma Salinas, right, was last year's sweetheart and presented Diana with a bouquet of roses and the sweetheart ribbon.

Annual, Eagle Staff Work Together

Each Friday for 30 weeks during the school term Eagle staff members sell the school newspaper to students in Mission High School. Shown here are left to right Tony Kennard, Bertha Reyes, and Ricky Pierce calling on one of the classrooms to sell the newspaper. About one-third of the total printing bill is paid by sales from the weekly newspaper.

Each story that appears in the newspaper must be checked before it is set in type, then checked again on the galleyproof to eliminate errors from the newspaper. Shown here are left to right Debbie

These beginning journalism students visited a local print shop to see how newspapers are printed. Watching Mr. C. 56

W. Rossow set up type are left to right Diane Williams, Patricia Chastam, Bobbie Placke, Tony Kennard, Connie Powell, Debbie Ludwig, and Ricky Pierce.

Ludwig, Bobbie Placke, Pat Chastain, Connie Powell, and Ursula Guggenbuehl reading proofs before they are returned to the printer.

A typical work night for the Annual Staff involves some 35 to 45 people working on yearbook pages. This group is identifying pictures for the Clubs & Organizations section and laying out pages on dummy sheets. With their backs to the camera are

A weekly chore for these journalism students is addressing each copy of the Eagle mailed to advertisers, former students and other schools. At work are left to right Zaragosa Hinojosa, Linda Helle and Susan Kawamoto. About 75 copies of the school newspaper are mailed out each week.

Walkathon Raises Funds for March of Dimes

collected in their name for the March of Dimes. Bucket brigades and peanut sales, conducted by the Y-Teens and Pan American Club, helped raise money for the two Mission walkers, as did a dance sponsored by the Y-Teens. Mission stepped off 7,127 steps for a total of $712.70 and placed fourth in the contest. In all, $7,119.60 was raised for the March of Dimes in the campaign with nine schools participating.

Two Mission helpers in the March of Dimes Walkathon were Celia Munoz, left, and Imelda Ramirez. They are shown taking time out for lunch of fried chicken and cokes. Celia represented the Y-Teens and Imelda was sponsored by the Pan American Club in the county-wide contest to raise money for the march of dimes.

Many MHS students were on hand to cheer efforts by the Eagle entries in the Walkathon at McAllen High School Stadium.

Shown here left to right are Dee Dee Blankenbaker, Arturo Munoz, Jeanne Valverde, and Steve Martinez. They were just a few of the Mission supporters on hand during the day to watch progress of the Walkathon.

Two of the models in the Texas Citrus Fiesta style show were Dickie Thompson, left, a Mission Junior High student, and Diane Duncan, MHS freshman. They are shown here waiting for the judges' decision on how they came out in the contest.

These are members of the Mission FFA citrus judging teams who competed in judging fruit at the Citrus Fiesta. Left to right are members of the senior team who won second in their division. They are Mack Randolph, Steve Jeter, and Dennis Holbrook. On the right are members of the junior judging team that placed third. Left to right are Scott Randolph, David Dominguez, and Willie Gossett.

Mary Kay Thompson and Debby Lawrence show off costumes they modeled during the three style shows that highlighted the XXXIII Texas Citrus Fiesta.

These art students competed in the art exhibit portion of the Citrus Fiesta. From left to right are Juan Barrera, who is holding his Mosaic birdbath; Cathy Grant, holding her first place Mosaic-wood; Cathy Foley, winner of honorable mention with her mosaic; Cindy Gibbs, who entered her mosaic; and Mrs. Dorothy Suter, art teacher.

VOE Students Prepare For The Future

Vocational Office Education students in Mission High School study for half a day, and then work in some business establishment for the remainder of the day. Here, three of the girls in VOE watch as Mrs. Wanda Williams of the Professional Beauty Salon works on the hair of Hilaria de la Garza. Looking on are Irma Garza and Adela Garza.

Rachel Gutierrez is switch board operator and does general office work at the First State Bank in Mission. She answers the phone as Mr. Elliott Bottom, executive vice president, waits to ask her a question.

These VOE students are using the dictaphone to take a typing assignment from Mrs. Joanne Morrow, instructor. Mrs. Morrow is standing in the background looking over the shoulder of one of the students. The class learns to use all types of business machines.

When it's all over, the VOE students will be prepared to take their place in the business world. Mr. Ray Myers, high school principal, hands a diploma to Graciela Gonzalez. Gracie is one of the VOE students interested in pursuing a business career when she graduates from Mission High School.

In Memoriam

Mr. Forrest L. Hood

1915-1970

Probably the most loved of all teachers in Mission High School, Mr. Forrest L. Hood will be missed by students and faculty members alike. Mr. Hood died January 13, after a lengthy illness. Those who knew him best will always remember Mr. Hood for his kindness and gentle ways, but he will also be remembered for his knowledge of the English language and his manner of getting it across to his students.

Because of his love for MHS and what it stands for, Mr. Hood willed his entire estate to the high school in the form of The Josephine and Forrest Hood Scholarship Fund. Through his generosity, a deserving student each year will get to attend the college of his choice.

A man who liked to be around people and who especially liked to be around his students, Mr. Hood stipulated in his will that the recipient of the scholarship should make occasional visits to his gravesite to see that it is in order.

In his memory, students and faculty members started a memorial fund this year to purchase a plaque and books for the high school library in his name. Inscribed on the plaque will be:

To him in the love of learning devoted his life to instruction of the young, we inscribe this tribute:

"Green be the turf above you,
Friend of our better days,
None knew you but to love you,
Nor named you but to praise."

In memory of Forrest L. Hood
1915-1970

"Everything's going
just swimmingly.
Beautiful!"

bauer, Ignacio Guerra, Pat McPherson, Edgar Walsh, Tony Ayala, Merced Solis, David Nelson, and Robert Goodwin.

Team managers for the varsity Eagles this year were left to right Ben York, Arthur Weber, and Johnny Martin. Their job was to take care of equipment and assist the coaching staff.

Directing the coaching duties for the Eagles this year was head coach and athletic director Bob Holloway, seated in the center. Coaches shown with him are Phil Bailey, seated left, and Roy Cockrell, seated right, while standing left to right are Robert Zamora, Harper Augsburger, and Paul Hallock.

Eagles Rip Laredo in Opener

Terry Lankford (18) is touchdown bound against the Edinburg Bobcats. Lankford found an opening on a quarterback sprint out and raced for the goal line, but

Robert Goodwin (45) blasts up the middle through a gaping hole for Mission's first touchdown of the season. The Eagles went on to defeat Laredo Martin, 19-14, in the season opener at Burnett Stadium. Goodwin, a tailback, was a mainstay in the Eagle offense all season.

Bracing for the tackle from an Edinburg player is Juan Marmalejo (25) who had a good night for the Eagles against the Edinburg overcame a 14-point Mission lead to squeak out a 28-27 decision over the Birds in non-conference play.

This pass to Gilbert Hinojosa (20) looks good, but it was batted out of his hands by an alert Laredo Martin defender as the Eagles took a 19-14 decision over the Tigers in the season opener.

Bobcats. Edinburg managed a 28-27 decision in the game.

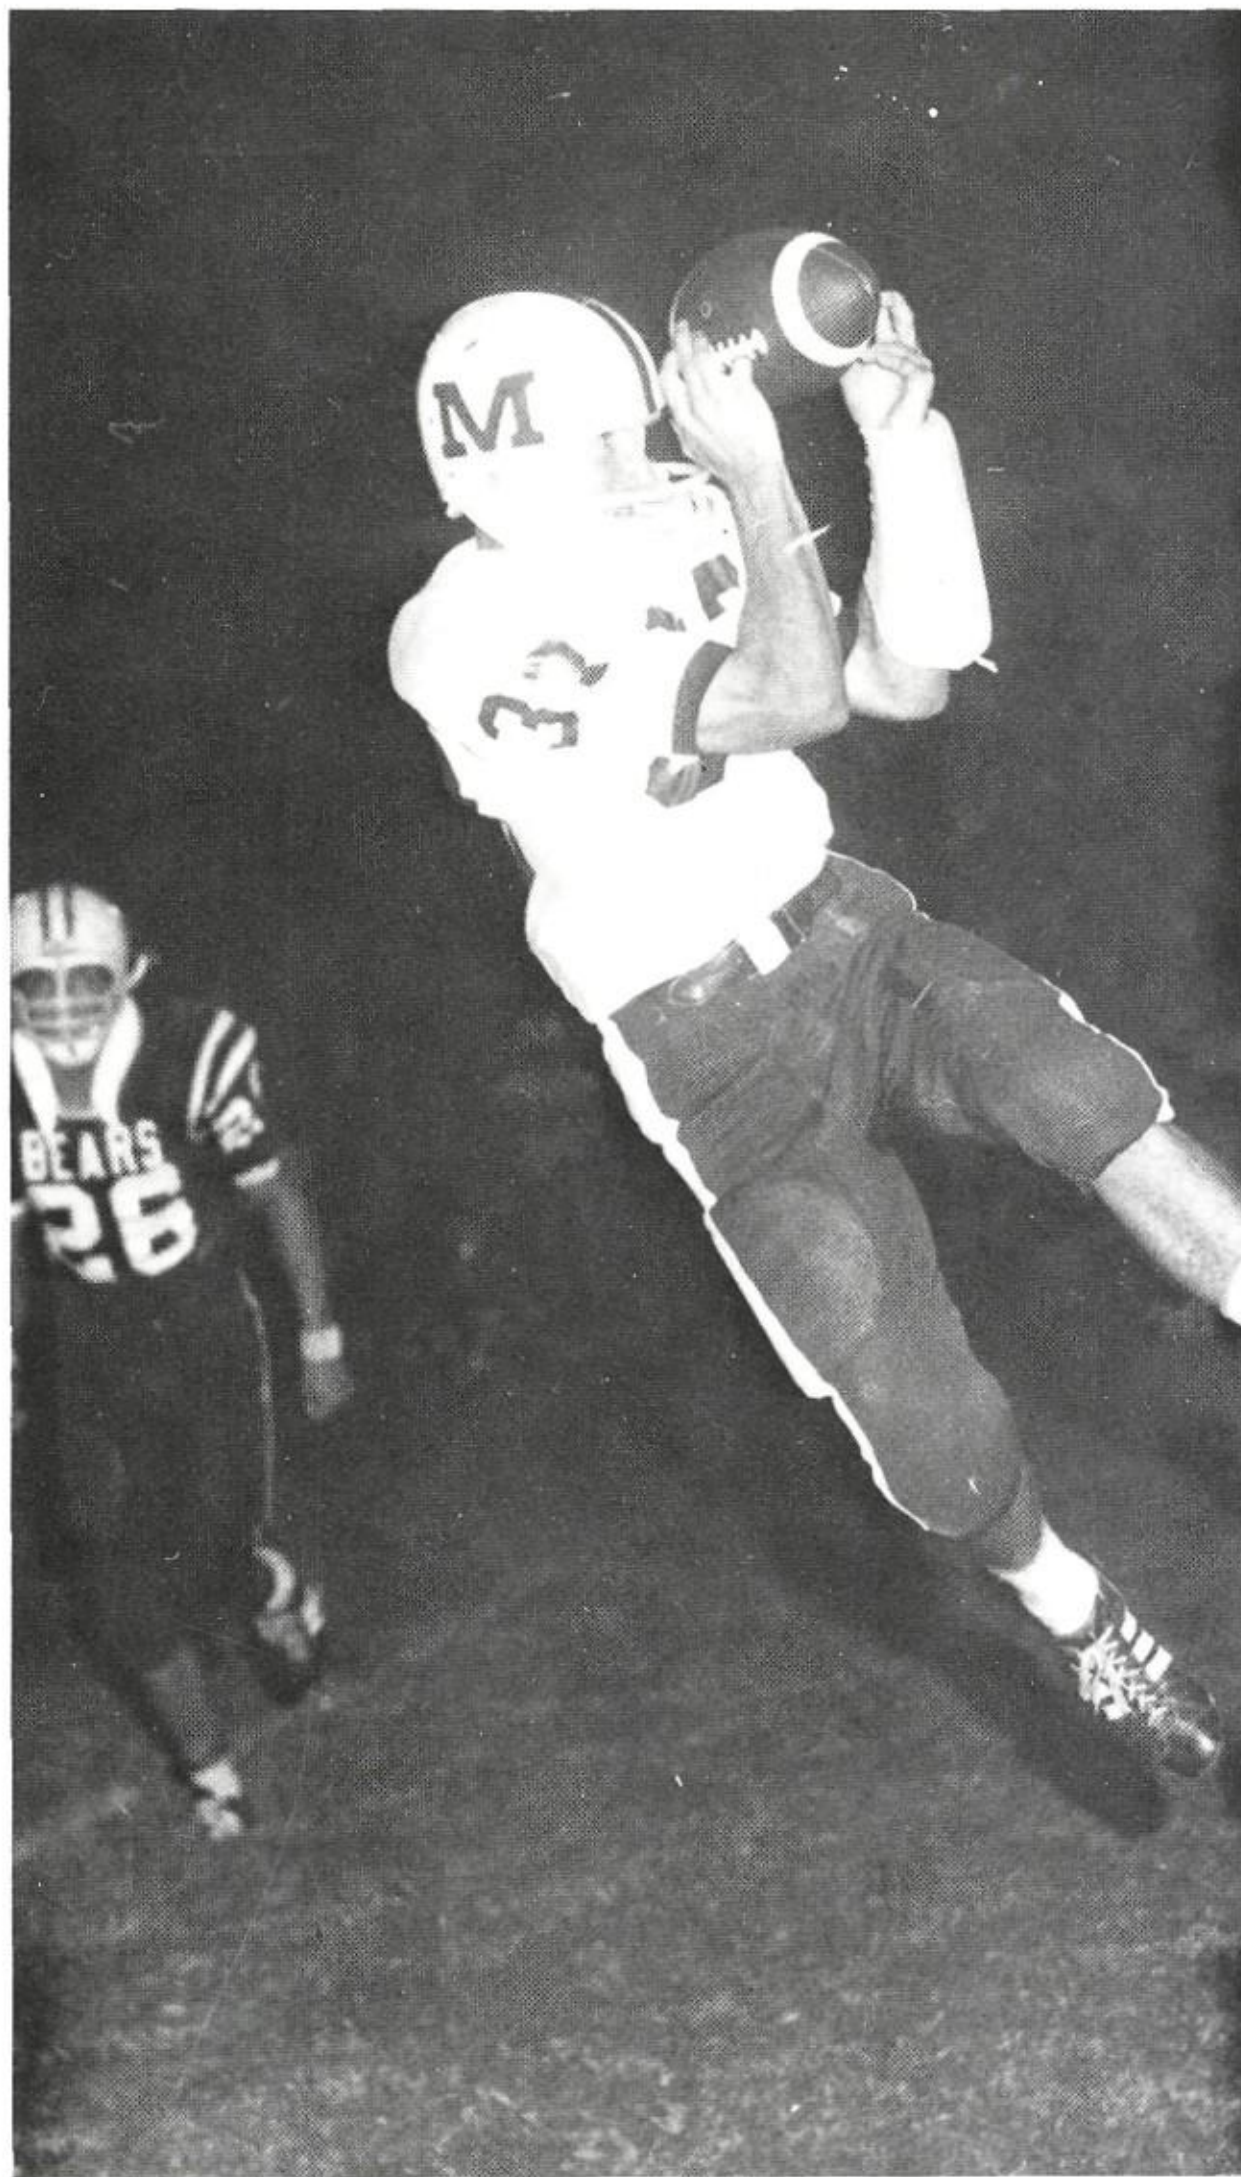

One of the game officials signals a touchdown for Mission as Terry Lankford (18) holds the ball under his arm. Lankford sneaked in for the score against Edinburg, but the Eagles still lost to the Bobcats.

PSJA Bears Wallop Eagles, 43-7

Sophomore tailback Jon Caldwell (31) stiffarms a PSJA tackler as he picks up long yardage for the Eagles. Caldwell was Things looked good on this play for Mission as Danny Harper (33) goes high in the air to haul in a pass from quarterback Terry Lankford, but Harper was clobbered on the tackle by a PSJA defender and he fumbled, with PSJA recovering. The Bears won a 43-7 decision over Mission in the non-conference game at Pharr.

gain against the Rattlers. Mission edged the Rattlers, 13-12, in the district opener.

The ball is the center of attention between George Mehis (88) and an unidentified Rio Grande City player. Mehis had the ball batted away at the last moment, but Mission went on to defeat the Rattlers, 13-12, in the opening district game of the season.

Mercedes Knocks Off Eagles, 17-7

Two Mercedes defenders try to catch up with Mission tight end David Nelson (84), as he reaches out to grab a long pass from quarterback Terry Lankford. In the background is Danny Harper (33), who comes up to help block the two Tigers. Nelson 102 held on to the ball to make a long gain for Mission, but the Tigers got the better of the contest as they knocked off Mission, 17-7. This was the first district loss of the season for the Eagles, who had downed Rio Grande City earlier in the season.

Mercedes' key victory kept them in competition for the district crown for most of the season while Mission's hopes were dimmed for a repeat district title.

Wingback Merced Solis (85) receives a good, hard jolt by a Mercedes defender after catching a pass from quarterback Terry Lankford.

Arthur Tarbutton (32) had one of his better games of the season against Edcouch-Elsa's Yellowjackets. On this play he scampered into the end zone behind blocker David Nelson for one of Mission's touchdowns as the Eagles won a 38-0 decision over the Yellowjackets.

Weslaco quarterback Randy Talbert ran for good yardage on this play before he was finally upended by Merced Solis (85) and Danny Harper (33). Ignacio Guerra

(83) was on the scene but his assistance was not needed.

Weslaco Wins District 16-AAA Crown

Coaches Bob Holloway (with cap) and assistant Phil Bailey look on closely as the action takes place on the field.

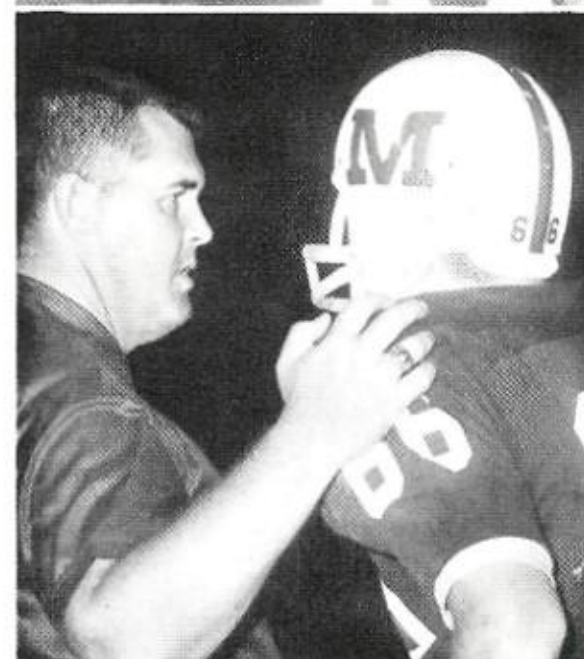

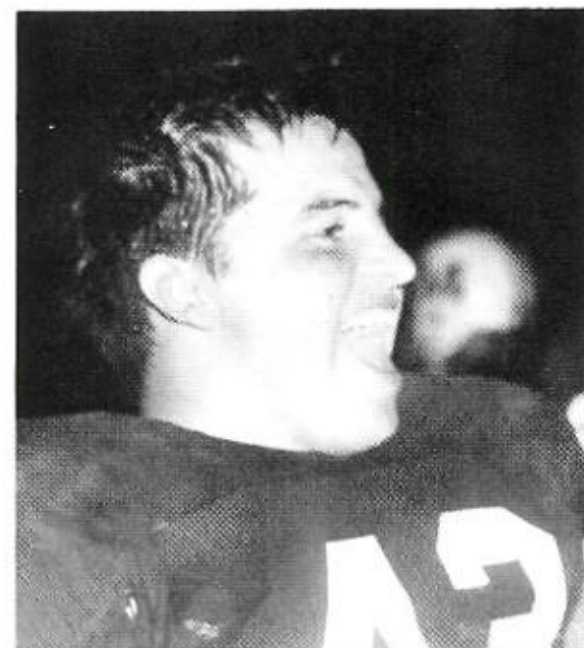

A dark-shirted Weslaco defender hit Mission flanker Danny Harper (33) at just the right moment to prevent a touchdown in the District 16-AAA game at Weslaco. Harper broke across the middle and quarterback Terry Lankford's pass was on target, but the defender hit Harper at the same time the ball did. Weslaco knocked off the Eagles, 26-0, to win the District 16-AAA championship and advance to the state playoffs.

Defensive stalwart Ramon Garza cheers for the offense in Mission's 13-12 victory over Rio Grande City.

Coach Holloway gives a word of advice to defensive linebacker Dale Compton during a time out on the field.

Sophomore end David Nelson (84) goes between two Raymondville defenders to pull in a Terry Lankford pass for the Eagles as Mission went on to defeat the Bearkats, 35-14, in a District 16-AAA game.

Cutting the corner in front of a Raymondville Bearkat hot in pursuit is Mission's sophomore tailback Jon Caldwell (31) who picked up a good gain on this play to help Mission win, 35-14.

Pat McPherson and Merced Solis battle for a rebound with Weslaco's Steve Henson in a district encounter won by the Panthers, 68-43, at Eagle Gymnasium. The Panthers defeated Mission twice in district play during the season. Weslaco and Edcouch-

Elsa finished the season in a deadlock for first place in District 16-AAA.

Dedrick Terveen of Donna (33) muscles in on two Mission Eagles to take this rebound as the Redskins downed Mission, 60-51, and avenged an earlier loss to the Eagles. Pat McPherson (25) and Terry Lankford (12) are the Eagles battling Terveen for the ball.

Coach Harper Augsburger talks it over with his starting five in a thriller with Mercedes at Mission Eagle Gymnasium.

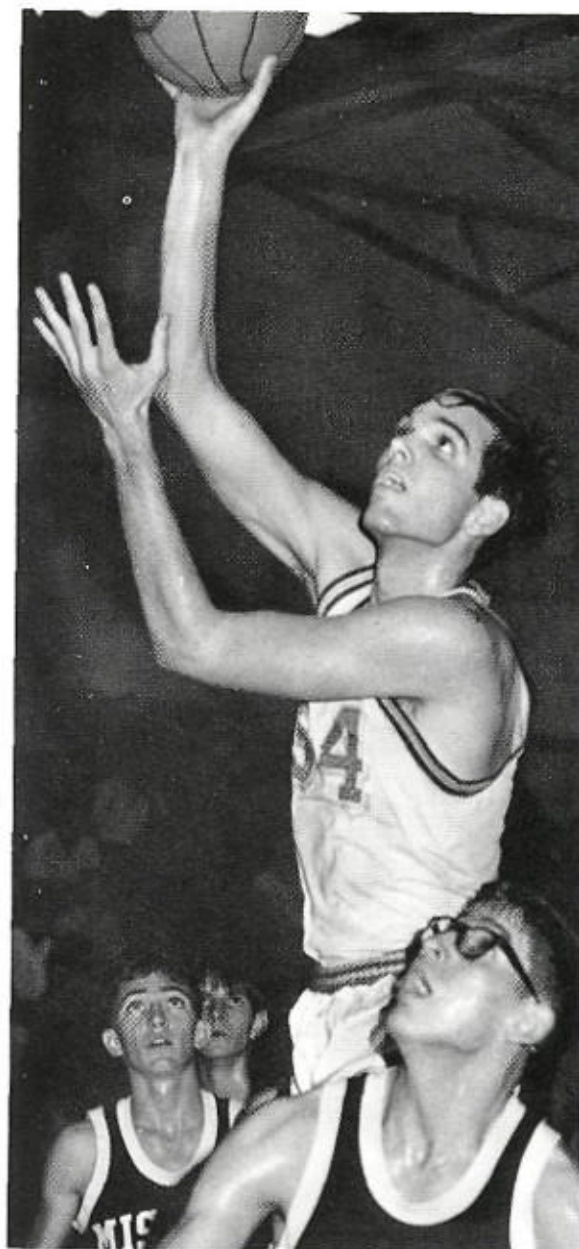

Left to right around Augsburger are Mack Randolph, Merced Solis, Terry Lankford, Juan Marmalejo, and Pat McPherson. The Eagles split with the Tigers in two games this year, winning at Mercedes and losing at Mission.

Gym. Looking on in the background is Juan Marmalejo.

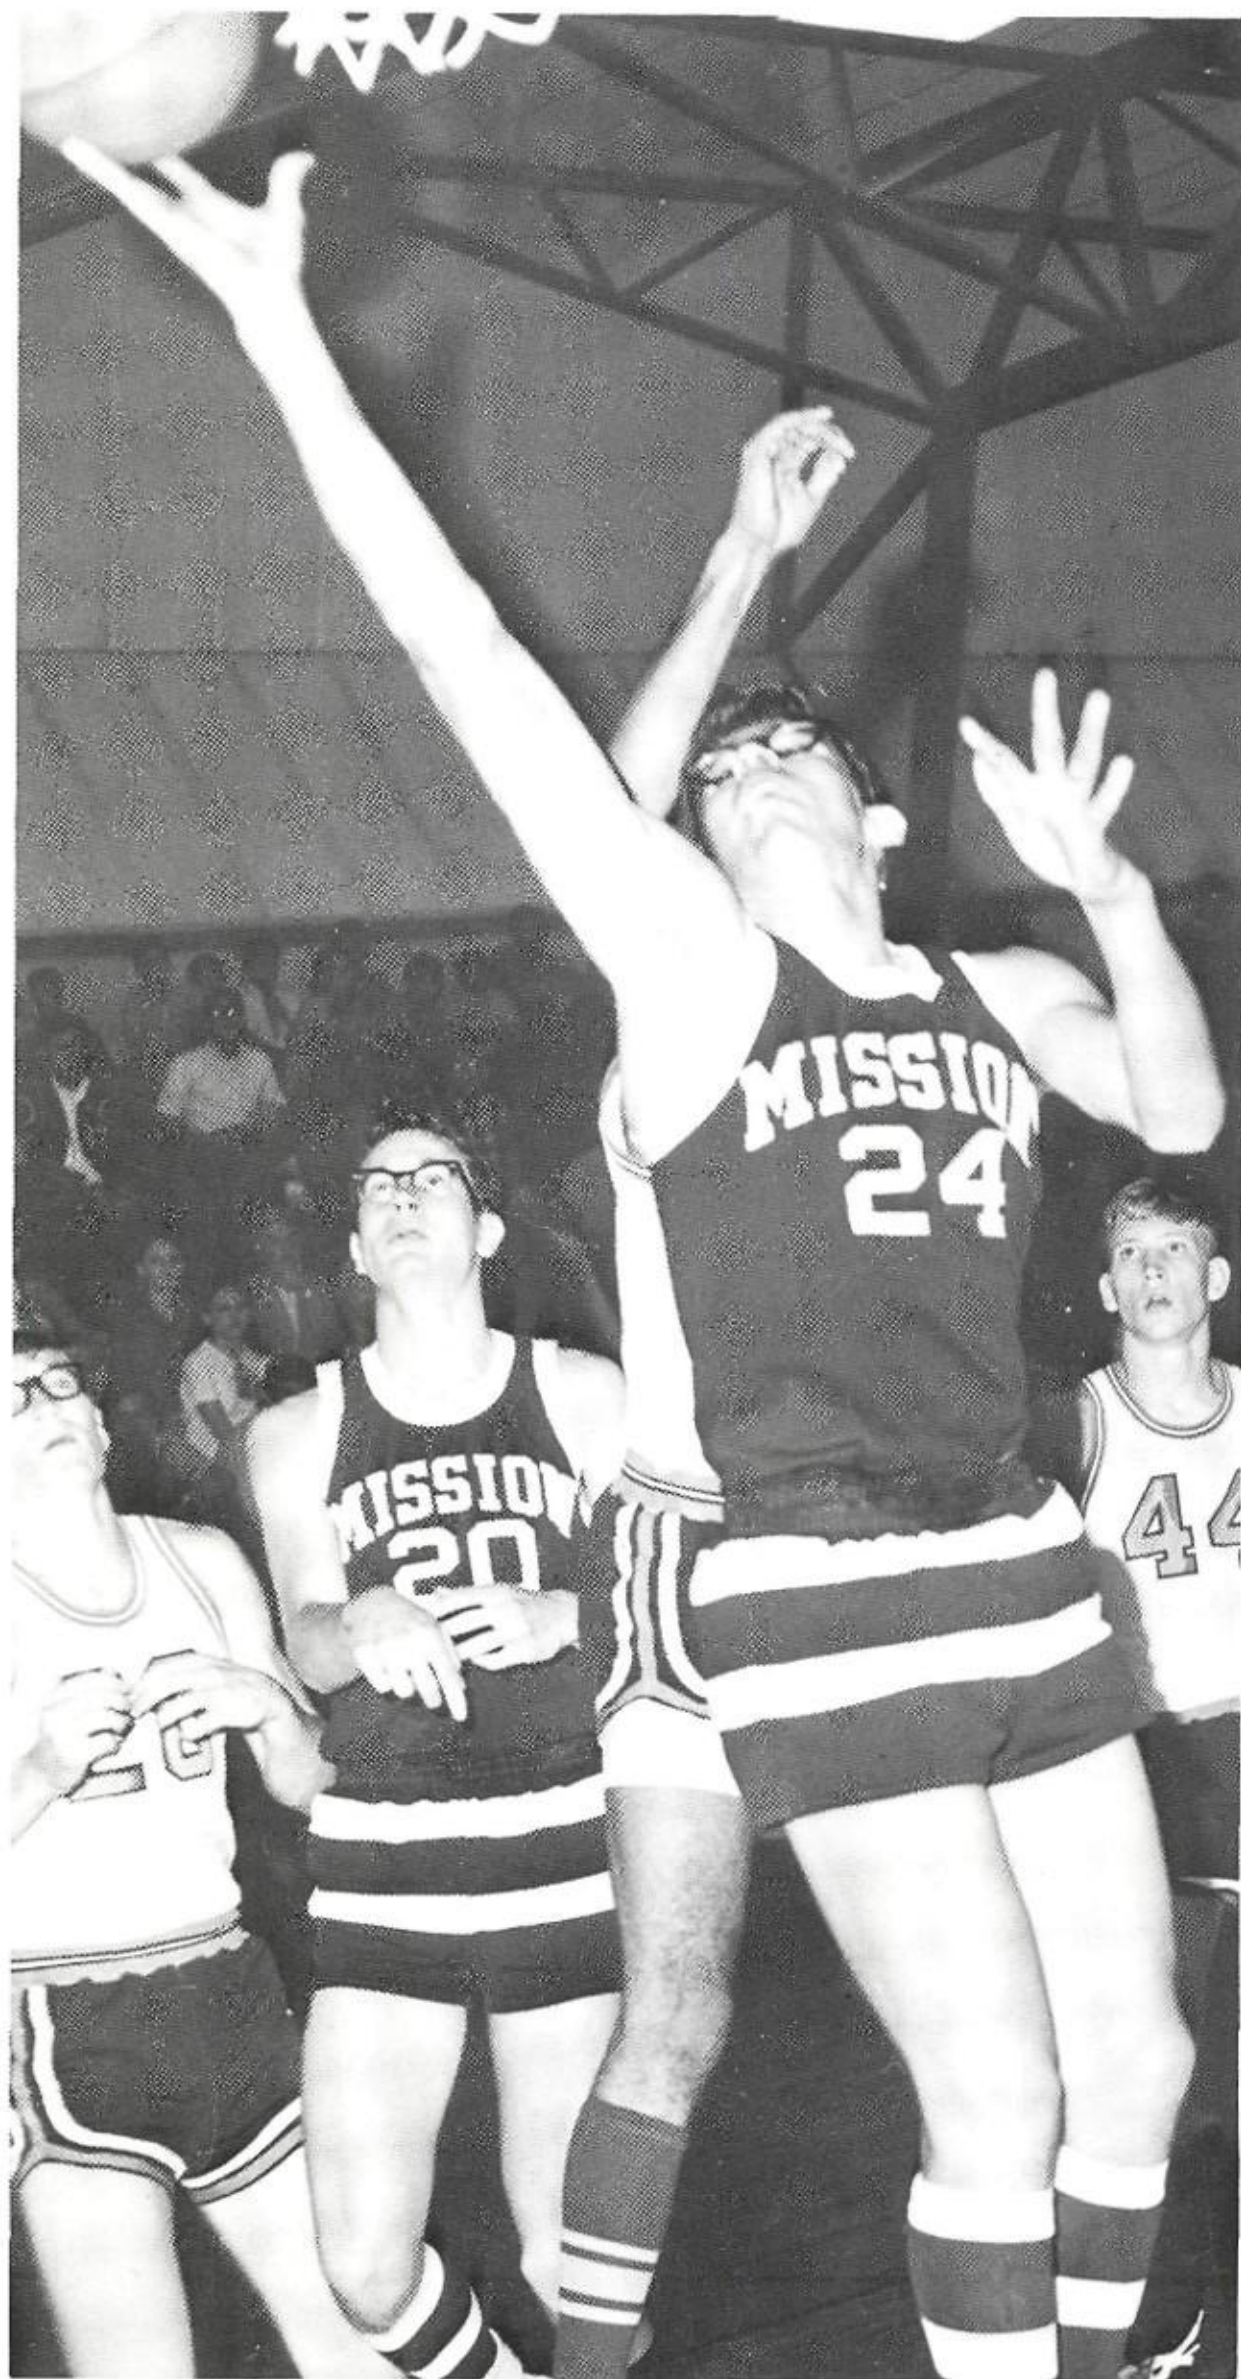

Lanky Doug Schneider goes high over the back of Merced Solis (24) of Mission to score two points in McAllen's 70-54 victory over the Eagles. Mack Randolph watches the shot go in.

Mack Randolph takes a shot with a host of Donna Redskins looking on in action during the Mission Golden Grapefruit Basketball Tournament. The Eagles went on to defeat Donna and gain the consolation finals of tournament play.

Pat McPherson (25) and Tommy Barker of Weslaco (22) battle for a rebound in action at Eagle Gym. The Panthers dumped the Eagles in the game.

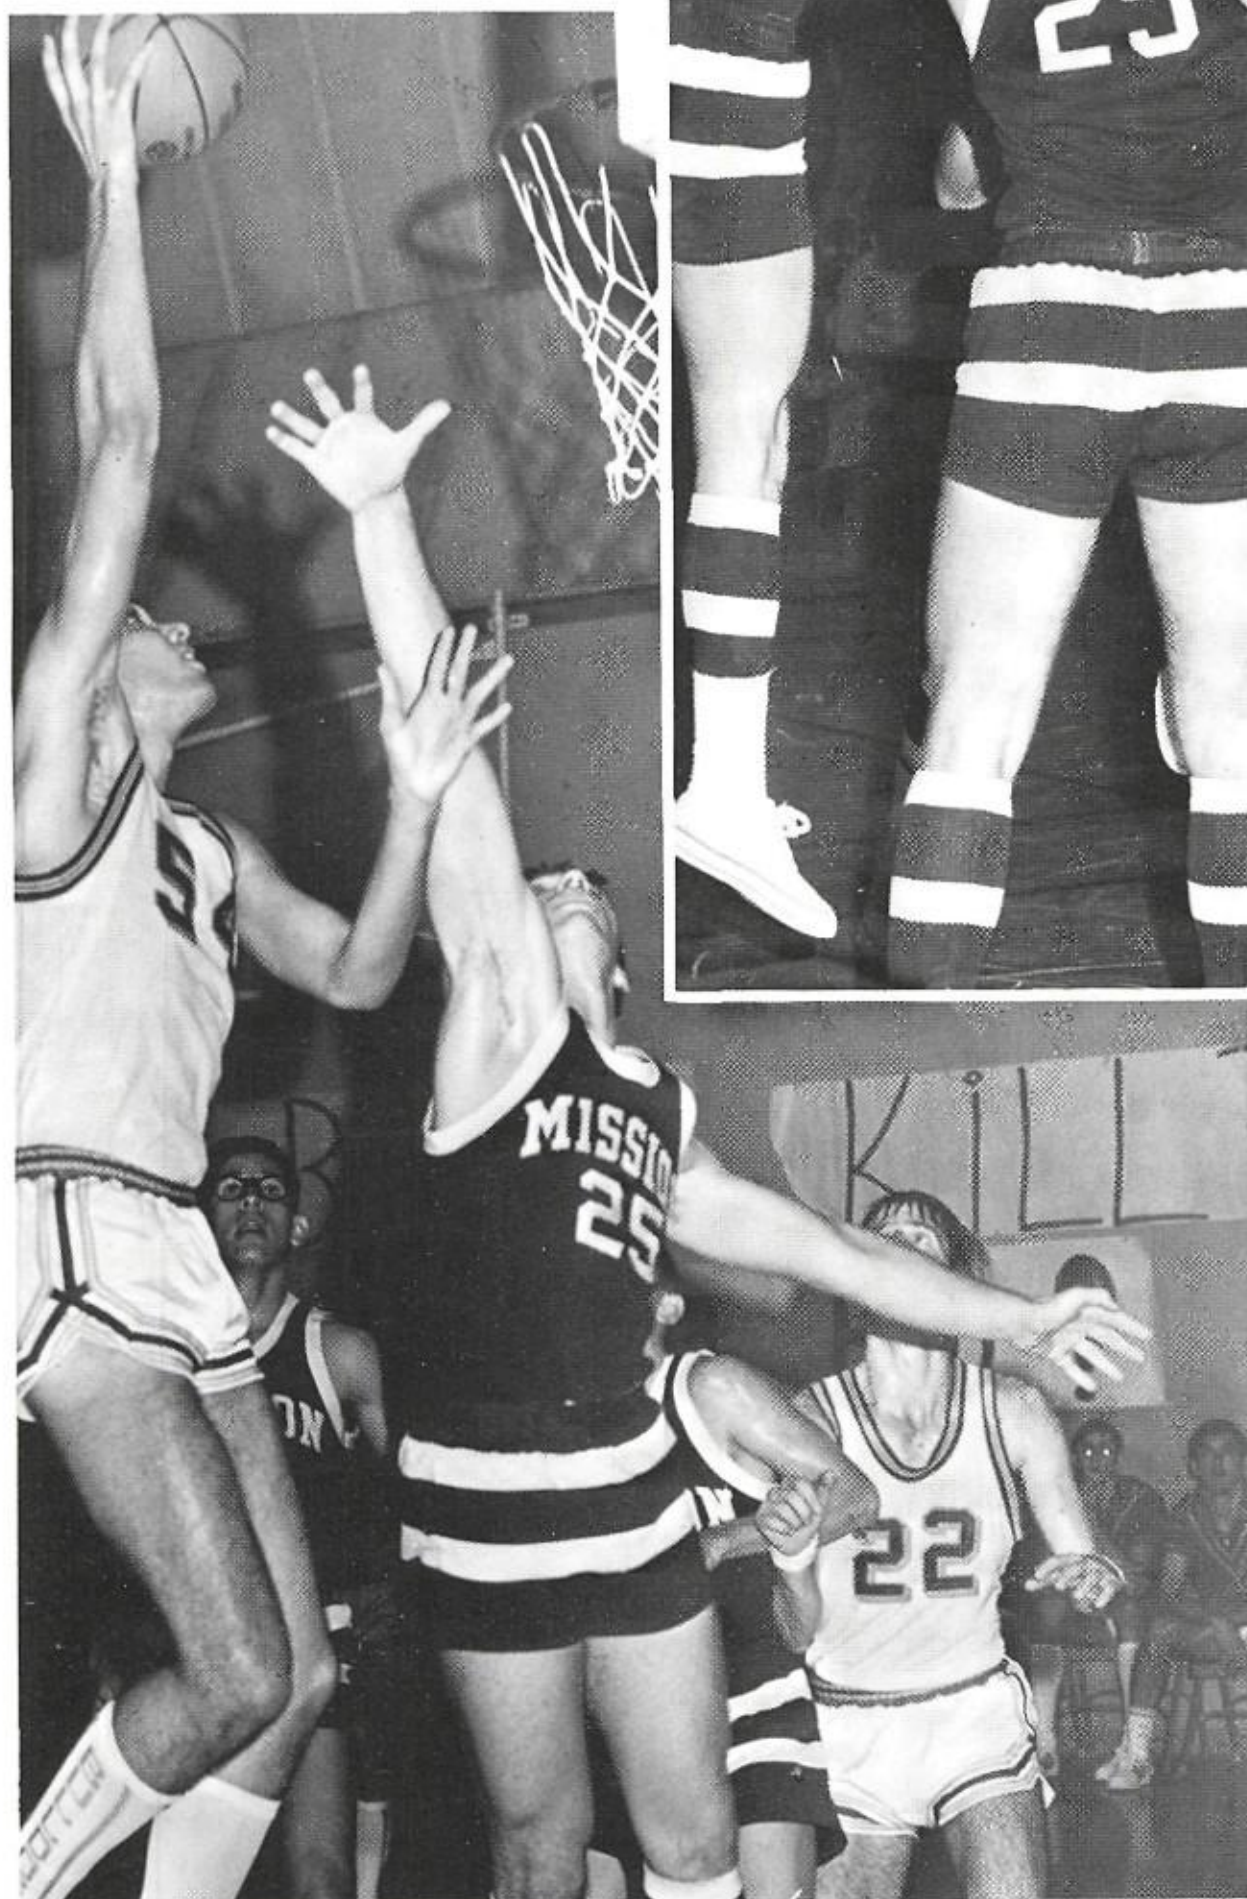

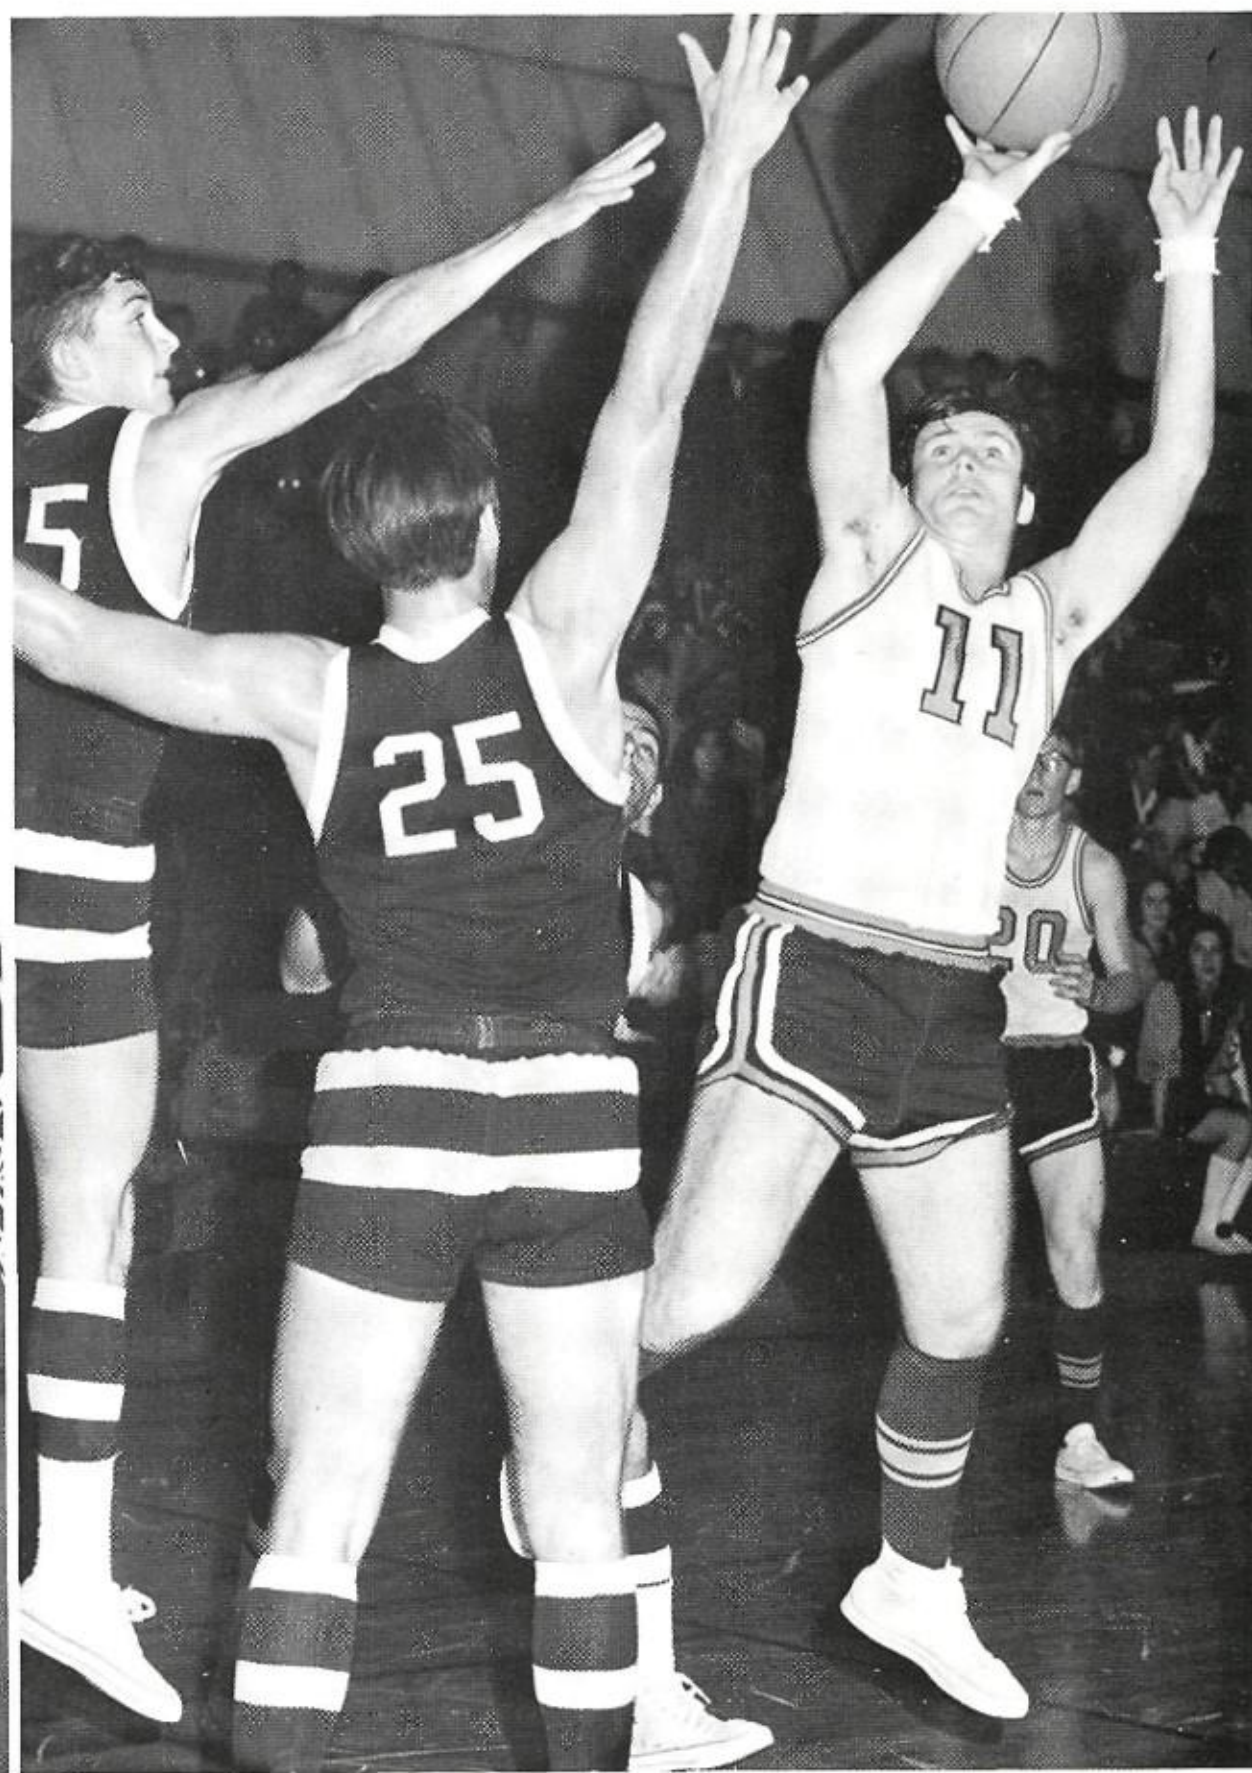

Driving under the basket, Merced Solis twists back to lay up a shot for the Eagles in action against Donna. Lane Garrett (20) watches the ball drop in for Mission. Solis was the leading scorer for Mission this year and ranked third in the district with a 17.5 average.

Doug Schneider, all district basketball player from McAllen, hooks in a shot over the outstretched hands of Pat McPherson (25) of Mission. The Bulldogs outclassed the Eagles, 70-54, in a non-conference game. Next year the Eagles move into the same conference as the Bulldogs.

Two dark-jerseyed Eagles stretch to try to block a shot by this unidentified Donna Redskin. Mack Randolph (15) and Pat McPherson (25) couldn't stop the shot as Donna won the game, 60-51, to hand the Eagles their sixth district loss of the season. The setback by the Eagles shoved them into a tie with the Redskins for third place in league standings.

Eagles Host Successful Tournament

Florentino Garza, Humberto Martinez, Ignacio Guerra, Bruno Cavazos and Ricky de la Garza. They gave the Eagles experience and depth in the pitching department.

Doing the catching for the Eagles were left to right Luis Flores, Juan Martinez and Edward Hutchinson. They worked behind the plate as the Eagles battled District

16-AAA foes to repeat as champions.

Infielders Tavo Trevino, Ken Healy, Efrain Arispe and Ignacio Guerra provided the glove work for Coach Longoria's Eagles on the infield.

This group of infielders also gave the Eagles depth and experience at their re-

Frank Munoz and Larry Schaefer.

The Eagles were well represented in the mile relay with this quartet of sprinters. Left to right are Billy Warshak, Danny Harper, Teodoso Cespedes and Terry Lankford. They also entered in individual sprint events.

Salvador Hinojosa clears a hurdle during a practice session. He was the only experienced hurdler on hand when Coach Paul Hallock's thinclads started workouts this spring.

Coming out of the blocks in a 100-yard dash are left to right John Anderson,

Terry Lankford and Danny Harper. They ran the dashes for the Eagles in meets this past year.

was a top candidate for district honors in the District 16-AAA meet as the Eagles battled for district honors.

Sailing high in the air during a practice jump is Danny Harper, Mission's all-state candidate in the broad jump. Harper, a senior letterman, won the district crown and the regional crown last year in his specialty and then placed second in the state at Austin with a leap of 21 feet, 6 inches. Coach Hallock said Harper would be a strong candidate to win the state championship in 1970 in the broad jump. In addition, he also ran on the relay teams and in the dashes.

In field events, the Eagles were represented by these four huskies. Left to right are David Nelson, Tony Ayala, Arthur Tarbutton and Edgar Walsh. They entered the discus and shot put events in meets held throughout the Valley in 1970.

Coach Hallock entered these runners in distance events in meets the Eagles competed in this year. Left to right are Daniel

Villarreal, George Garza, Gilbert Davila, Teodoso Cespedes, and

*I suppose I could refer to you as the best friend I had during my high school career.
If you weren't for sure fooled me. All the time it seemed like a one-sided sort of thing, with you putting all kinds of favors for me without me returning any of them. (as I've said before) we can still be friends. Just don't turn hippie.

Tony,
 Well, it's been great this year especially in good ole Journalism. Remember District at Taffurnias - that was so Extends Sincere Congratulations much fun - even if I did get 4th - to the last, but 4th.
 I want you to know that you are one of my favorite senior guys even if you are gonna be a Teasie!! (you know I don't agree of them) at all.) Congratulations on being a Teasie!! - I think you deserve it & it's really a good honor. I want to wish you the best of luck always. - I know you'll go far in life (where I don't know)
 And remember it really doesn't take 2 hours to drink a coke after a date. Have fun at TU!
 Gig! Em Love

ABOUT A NEW FORD

Jonny - I've already commandeered two pages of your valuable senior high school annual - my, your friends are flattering - when you're sitting in that big dorm at U.T. "burning the midnight oil" on English themes and history research papers think of all of us "lucky" ones who are going to Pan Am with parents so nearby - I'll never forget you and Renée, Krysti, Kathy, Gloria, Janis, Caroline, Bobbie etc.
you are the most ticklish boy I've ever known T-shirts certainly upset you, don't they? After you've left, I shall most likely loose several pounds - When you get to college - study hard, go to bed early read, and make new friends - well, so much for motherly advice - You have got to learn how to accept teasing or you'll forever be teased - you're so "teasable" - I've enjoyed your mother's fudge, cake, and dinners, your organ, and your your dry cleaning tips, most of all: I've enjoyed electric toothbrush, Always stay polite your company - but don't let people boss you around - especially me
Yea Panam? Love,
Penelope

MAN'S CONQUEST OF SPACE . . .

John,
It's been great knowing you & the miss time I made on it in flight was the best you helped me.
Thank you very much.
You've accomplished much in your years at N.S.S. & I very happy for you. In luck to your college years & these after. Stay as smart as you are - I as smart.
Love you,
Ellen
